

mx Quickie

The new team:
Greg Sullivan,
left, Sami Lukis,
Greg Martin and
Ian Skippen

A QUICK
CHAT WITH

SAMI LUKIS

She's done it all.

Now she's home

Why did you decide to leave Sydney radio?

After living in Sydney for 15 years, I decided it was time to come home and spend more quality time with the family.

Why did you choose Triple M?

I was thrilled when Triple M gave me the opportunity to join The Cage for 2008, because I grew up on a steady diet of breakfast radio in Brisbane – and I'm looking forward to starting my days with those gorgeous three amigos... Skip, Sully and Marto.

What are your new colleagues like?

I used to listen to Skip on radio before I left Brisbane, so it's an honour to be working with him all these years later. I'm looking forward to learning from him. I already know Marto's a top bloke because I used to sit beside him occasionally in the make-up chair when I was working at Fox Sports. And Sully is a bit of mystery to me – I can't wait to find out what lurks beneath that tall, dark, handsome, mysterious exterior.

How do you feel about coming back?

I've watched Brisbane evolve so much during my regular visits home over the past 15 years so I'm really excited about settling back into Brisbane life.

Did you enjoy working in TV?

I've been lucky enough to achieve pretty much everything I wanted out of my television career over the past 15 years – from the fun of kids' TV and the hard slog of travel shows to the excitement of daily live television on the Today show... plus hosting New Year's Eve telecasts, and Logies Red Carpet specials... and everything else in between. The only thing that would make my television career complete would be to win the lot on Who Wants to be a Millionaire.

What was your new year's resolution?

To spend more time with family. I know that one will be easy to achieve.

– JULIA PHIPPS

MY TOP 5

OVERSEAS HOLIDAYS

1. Aspen, Colorado, below, for awesome skiing, partying and people watching.
2. Maui, Hawaii, for golf.
3. Chiva Som Health Retreat, Thailand, for complete health and relaxation.
4. Los Angeles, for great shopping.
5. New Zealand, for fabulous food and wine.

TELL US SOMETHING WE DON'T KNOW

All my family and friends think I'm the world's worst driver.

